Termination of the Meal Plan Contract

All students who enter into this agreement are liable for residential meal plan fee payments for the academic year as indicated on this contract. If you are dismissed from the University, you will receive a pro-rated refund of the semester fees in accordance with the refund policy outlined in the Residence Hall Contract.

You may request exemption from the meal plan requirement for medical or religious reasons only. Meal plan exemption applications are located in the "for Residents" section of www.dineoncampus.com/csu. The University will consider each individual request on a case-by-case basis.

Pro-rated refunds are calculated weekly based on your Meal Plan usage. The week is defined as beginning on Monday and ending on Sunday. Meal Plan usage is calculated from the date that meal plans begin for the semester, through the Sunday following the day the meal plan is deactivated on the Viking Card. Residents who leave the University prior to the end of the academic term will receive a pro-rated meal plan refund based on the number of weeks of residency, actual use, and Dining Dollars usage until the end of the 5th week, at which time no refund will be given. You may only receive a full refund of your residential meal plan fees if you fail to take occupancy of your residence hall room, as defined by Section L(1) of the Residence Hall Contract.
